spangled Banner, Hail Columbia, &c., which is becoming too generally prevalent in the South.

The idea is common that these are Northern tunes set to Northern music. Hence the manifestations of dislike with which they are frequently received when performed in public places. Now, no impression could be more at variance with historical facts. These tunes and anthems of right belong to the South; and as they are glorious tunes and anthems, we should cherish and perpetuate them, instead of throwing them back into the possession of those who have causelessly and wantonly become our enemies. These magnificent compositions first burst upon the world when the whole country was a slaveholding country; and like nearly everything great in war, peace, intellect and science, which made our forefathers illustrious, sprung from one general source. Instead of abandoning, let us claim them as our own legitimate property. They are a pro ud portion of our birth-right. Our, whole people have listened to their swelling strains with unalloyed delight; and tens of thousands would almost as soon fight for their retention as they would for the protection of their section—so strong is this reverence for, and powerful their attachment to, the grand old tunes they have admired and loved from earliest boyhood to the present moment.

For these reasons, leaving out of the ac-

1. That we approve of the call of a State Convention, for the purpose of considering and adopting such measures as are necessary to secure the rights of the State in the existing Confederacy or out of it, and the existing Confederacy or out of it, and in the event of the dissolution of our Union, to provide for her assuming her just share of the debts and obligations, and for securing her just share of the pro-

3d. That we deprecate the commencement of hostilities by any seceding State, for the purpose of capturing forts in her territory, before the formation of a new Confederacy, should one be adopted, unless, in the opinion of such State, such hostilities be essential to her safety; and hold that the question of peace or war, involving, as it does, the rights and safety of all, should be committed to the General Government of such Confederacy. And that a retention of military posts, for a limited time, by the United States Government, within the territory of a seceding State, no more stains her honor than the continued occupation of British posts within our territory, after the revolution, tarnished the honor of the old Confederation.

"The Wages of Sin is Death."

A few months since, a young woman from Lexington, Ky., who called herself Kate Rogers, came to this city, and, after a brief sojourn at one of our first hotels, found an asylum in the harem kept by Puss Pettis, on Main street. Her story was similar to that of thousands of others who have failed to resist the wiles of the base seducer. The "bright particular star" of a comfortable home, she listened to the syren song of a brute in human shape, and fell. Discarded by her young companions, she sought in the world at large, by a life of dissipation, to drown the recollection of earlier years. How illy she succeeded in the so-called life of pleasure is told in the brief announcement that she was, on Saturday morning, found in bed seriously indisposed from the effects of an over dose of laudanum. All efforts to provide an antidote for the fatal drug were unavailing, and her young spirit, once so fair, rendered itself up to "Him who gave it." Who shall revile the memory of one who "loved not wisely but too well," and who, rather than suffer the ills she bore, preferred to fly to others she knew not of, and took her departue to that undiscovered country from whose borne no traveler returns. May she rest in peace; but, may the seducer experience the stings and arrows of an outraged conscience.

Kate Rogers was apparently about eighteen years of age, and, it is said, was very repectably connected in Kentucky.—[Memphis Avalanche, Monday.

He was advised to abandon the fortress, as General Charles Lee, his superior officer, declared it was no better than a "slaughter pen."

But Moultrie had faith in his own work, and defended the fort with great skill and valor, and drove away the enemy. One British ship was lost and two others were so riddled as to have almost become wreeks. The loss of the enemy was 222 killed and wounded. The Americans had II killed and 25 wounded. The fortress

The present crisis has been brought upon us by the systematic warfare of the North on the slave property of the South. The great body of the people North believe that slavery is a religious, social, and political evil. To be convinced of this fact you have only to look to their Church discipline—retusing to the slave owner a seat at the communion of their common God, holding that the presence of one guilty of so great a sin would pollute that "holy of so great a sin would pollute that "holy of holies." The Churches North, with but few exceptions, their pastors and their people, believe that slavery is a heinous sin, and on every Sabbath day—a day that commemorates the resurrection of that Being whose teachings were charity and brotherly love,—and in the temples erected to his worship, where should "In tones as sweet as angele use, siasm; and, in fact, he did believe that the visit of the Prince of Wales to America has done more to cement the good feeling between the two countries than could possibly have been effected by a quarter of a century of diplomacy. DISCOVERY OF A PLOT TO ASSASSINATE THE KING OF ITALY.—The Turin correspondent of the London News writes:
Doubtless you remember the rumor about a fortnight ago, in Vienna, that Victor Emanuel had been killed in Naples, and how the Vienness politicians were discussing whether Naples would have a republic, or the natural heir of Victor Emanuel for a king, with the regency, or a restoration in the person of Francis II., or a French Prince. Well, there was the same rumor at Rome and Venice. After much inquiry, the following information is whas we obtained respecting this report. A plot had really been laid at Gaeta and Rome, and it was known, very well known, at the courts of Vienna and Madrid; but certain arrests made at Naples broke the thread of the plot in question—accidentally, it seems, for the police who effected the arrests were ignorant of the plot itself. As often happens, some of the parties arrested thought all had been discovered, and thus put the police upon another scens. It is, however, true that secret and reliable information was sent us here from Rome as well; so that the police are now enabled to collect the most important information respecting a huge conspiracy, concocted at Rome, and which is being extended through Italy and France by means of the clergy and others.

THE BURCH CASE—A COMPROMISE AGRRED UPON AND THE CASE TAKEN FROM THE COURTS.—It will be learned with satisfaction by our readers that the whole matter lately at issue in the Burch divorce case, has been taken from the courts and will be settled by negotiation and compromises. The arrangement already consummated has stopped the hearing already in progress at Joliet before Judge Norton on the habeas corpus, brought at suit of Mrs. Burch for the custody of the two children.

This hearing was to have terminated last evening, but we learn that in this city resterday afternoon, a compromise and partition were agreed upon, by which one of the children, they compest daughter, Harriet Corning Burch, is given to the mother, the eldest, Mary W. The Conventions on the Eighth. Two political Conventions have been called to meet in this city on the 8th of more important to keep up party organizations, and arrange plans to secure party successes, than to defend and mainta their menaced rights and honor as citizen of a slaveholding State-who think i their duty to preserve their party regardless of the fate of the country.

Though the appointment of delegates to these Conventions has been by no means general, not extending over more than e-fourth of the counties in the State, yet there will probably be quite a gathering of oliticians, each anxious to save the country-or himself. Though the organs of the two factions that will be represented here have declared that there can be no affiliation between them, yet in some of the counties delegates have been appointed in such a manner that they may attend either or both of the Conventions; and we understand that Committees of Conference will be named, and concerted action, if possible, had, ending in a single party nization, and a Union candidate for the office of Treasurer of Kentucky. We have strongly condemned, and we know the people deeply regret, the partisan feeling that prompted the calls for these Conventions at this time. In all free Governments, parties are inevitable, and their existence is not to be deplored. But just now issues involving questions of the greatest possible important upon the people of the country; and Kentucky is more deeply interested in those ssues than she has been in any matter ever before presented for their consideration; and it is not the part of duty or patriotism to divide and distract, or attempt to divide and distract, public sentiment on these matters of paramount importance, by party movements founded on obsolete quest nd looking no further than the aggrandisement of political agitators through th

Disunion is a fact; and the destiny e independent sovereignties, the fate of whole peoples, and peace or civil war are only a few of the matters depending on the on of the States, of which Kentucky is one. And with these mighty issues burning themselves into the very brains of the good men of all sections and of all parties-with the peace, and prosperity, and liberties of thirty millions of people suspended in the balance-while a world looks on incredu lous and amazed, a half dozen patriotic gentlemen call party meetings, and order party conventions, to devise some plan by hich to secure some petty offices and a little political power! If this is a speci men of modern patriotism, God help us in this our time of greatest need!

But right or wrong, the conventions will assemble; any amount of plotting and cau cussing will be done in private parlors and secret quarters; some speeches more or less stale will be rchearsed for the benefit mainly of the clacquers which the friends of the respective modern Demosthenes' will provide; a long string of resolu tions will be adopted; addresses as elaborate as dull and 'unreadable will be prepared; and a candidate, or candi es, will be presented for an offic which pays the incumbent the enormous salary of $1,700 a year.

These will be done for party and to benefit politicians: our poor country, is thought of or mentioned, will be remer gardless of party distinctions, are now debered only to consider how its misfor unes can be made available to assist in promoting the plans and aims of the con-

Southern Confederacy, certain seriou causes of dissension in the future. Other ournals in the South, following the lead ppened by the Times, have seen not only idubitable traces of this vein underlyi he solid earth, but have found the actual outcrop" in particular localities. The are mention of such an important fact rom so high and disinterested a source, must command the most serious attention and the most careful consideration.

The first and sharpest point of this out rop is found in Virginia and South Caro lina, and is of such a nature that no super structure reared upon it could stand for a day; for, as the Times says, it would in an hour dissolve any compact entered into between them." And what is mor tartling is that this fundamental difficulty is in their relative position as to slaver tself, and consists in the fact that Virginia has too many slaves, while South Carolina has too few-for which difficulty, according to these oracles, there is no possib olution! Many ignorant persons might suppose that it could be remedied by South Carolina taking the surplus slaves of Virginia; but there seems to be some secret reason why this cannot be done which, we suppose, is, either that Virginia is too proud to sell her slaves, or South Carolina too proud to take them as a gift. At any rate, all adjustment is impossible the Southern Confederacy is broken up in advance; and the Union preserved as it is

The next point, of equal variance, is be tween Louisiana and South Carolina: and here the fundamental difficulty is that they have no subjects on which they can post bly come in contact! In fact, as the Times says, "no two States in the Union are mo empletely isolated from each other They are not rivals either in position, prouction, or trade. Of course, therefore they could not get along together, some hing to quarrel about being necessary t roduce a sense of "common interest and to cement the bonds of union! Th nly way, therefore, to keep Louisiana and outh Carolina on proper terms with each ther is to keep them both in subjection to the North, which will make them know their places. "Quod erat demonstrandum. We deem it necessary merely to mention dese points to give our readers the clu to the argument. The submission jou nals at the South, whose peculiar province it is to attend to these matters, will n oubt improve upon the suggestion of the Times, and elaborate the idea to its ful extent. Reserving our opinions till thesnatters come up in a practical form, w shall then feel it our duty to help to solve

We have, to be sure, different amongst ourselves as to the time and mode of resistance, but we have never different with respect to the simple point of resistance itself.—[Louisville Journal. Although the "time and mode" of resist nce is a very important point, we are hap py for our neighbor to agree with us on al the balance. The people will easily settle both the "time and the mode" Common sense teaches them that a man should re sent the first insult, and not wait till he is knocked down and trampled upon.

To Ma. Hugh Wilkins:

THE CARPET LINING put down for us by you is the only thing of the kind that we have ever seen that we would care to have put under our carpets. So much are we pleased withit, that we would be very unwilling to have another carpet (old or a room where it is used. The difference between a room where it is used and the difference between a room where it is used and the difference of the servant. It is worth more than it cost in the increased softness and pleasantiness it gives the carpet, and we think you do not overrate its economy in stating that it adds one half to the carpet's wear, If our recommendation of it will add anything to your sales, we cheerfully give it, feeling wed your customers a muck greater kindness than we do you, HALL & HARRIS.

The President of the Convention has appointed Commissioners to Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Arkansas, and Georgia, but none to Texas.

In secret session yesterday an ordinance was passed defining and punishing treason. It declares that in addition to former deficiency to the session of the session was passed defining and punishing treason. It declares that in addition to former deficiency treason shall consist in levying warranged.

nitions, treason shall consist in levying war against a State, adhering and giving aid to enemies, and is to be punished with death without the benefit of clergy.

An ordinance was also passed providing that all judicial power delegated to the Courts of the United States shall be exercised by the State Courts and another that gency.

According to the present programme, the President's Message embodying the propositions of the South Carolina Commissioners will be sent to the House and will probably be tabled.

The Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms is now in New York summoning witnesses in the Bailey case. Russell will be bailed to-day. Yesterday was a general holiday in all the Departments, and the municipal offices were closed. All the Foreign Ministers and army and navy officers paid their respects to the President, after which the citizens generally were admitted. A few Union generally were admitted. A few Union and secession cockades were seen in the crowd. The receptions were cheerless, and the greetings lacked the carnestness of former similar occasions. But few members of Congress were present.

It is not true, as has been reported, that the Committee of Thirty-Three have accepted Mr. Crittenden's proposition, but some of the members are yet hopeful that they may arrive at some general agree.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—TESTIMO-NIAL.—"T. ALLCOCK & CO. No. 286 Canal-st , New York. 29th Nov., 1859.—Gentlemen: I lately suffered severely from a weakness in my back, oc-casioned by suddenly over-exerting myself. Havcasioned by suddenly over-exerting myself. Hav-ing heard your Plasters much recommended for cases of this kind, I procured one, and the result was all that I could desire. A single plaster cured

Pennsylvania Legislature.

Hakkishurg, P.A., Jan. 2.—The Governor's Message was delivered to the Legislature to-day. He declares the doctrine of secession erroneous. The Constitution is something more than a mere compact, and organized resistance to the General Government is rebellion. If successful, it may be purged of the crime by revolution—if unsuccessful, the persons may be executed as traitors; but, while denying the right of a State to absolve its citizens from allegiance to the Federal Government, nevertheless, it is proper that we carefully and candidly examine the reasons alleged, and, if they are well founded, they should be unhesitatingly removed and reparation for the past and security for the future given, for a government created by the people should never do injustice to any of its citizens.

Pennsylvania being included in the states alleged to have refused compliance with the Fugitive Slave Law, he unhesitatingly avers that the State has been almost invariably influenced by a high regard for the rights of her sister States. After examining the present State law, he says there is nothing to prevent the removal of the act of 1856, leaving the claimant a right to seek for a remedy tinder the State or Federal laws. He recommends that the consent of the State be given to the master while sojourning in or passing through Pennsylvania to retain the services of the slave.

He suggests the re-enactment of the was all that I could desire. A single plaster cused me in a week.

Yours respectfully.

J. G. BRIGGS.

Proprietor of the Brandreth House, New York.

There is nothing equal in the way of a Plaster, to the Porous Plaster of Mr. ALLCOCK, Everything is pleasant about them. They are the Plaster of the day, and a fit type of our present advancement in science and art. In Asthma, Cough, Kidney Affections, and local deep seated pains, they afford permanent relief; and for weak backs, pains in the side, stitches, and spasmodic pains generally, they are unsurpassed for the benefits they impart. Physicians should examine this article, which is universally approved where known. Principal Office 244 Canal street, New York.

Price 25 cents each. Sold by J. B. WILDER & CO., Main street, and RAYMOND & TYLER, Fourth street, Louisville, Ky., and by all respectable dealers in medicines.

"But before assuming the responsibilities that are foreshadowed, it is the solemn duty of Pennsylvania to remove every just cause of complaint, so that she can stand before high heaven without fear and reproach, and then she is ready to devote her life and fortune to the best form of Government ever devised by man.—
Though a dark cloud now rest upon the Union, my hopes and affections still cling to it. My prayer is, that He who orders the destinies of nations, when He shall leave us for our sins, will again have mercy upon us, and bind us in tighter, stronger, and more hallowed bonds of fraternity, so that the Union may remain unbroken throughout all futuretime." The analogmation of Languages.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into Juryown; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more seneral way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

HEADAGHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases. Intis nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Ansemia and plethera are also affections which frequently occasion Headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usuality distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical enersies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this ciase may also be ammed Neur Vola.

For the treatment of either class of Headacheth. Cephalle Fills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases o which Headache is the unerring index. HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which natur

No one of the "many ills flesh is helr to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neclected as Cositiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits: it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangereous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which coeffityness is the usual attendant are Headache. Colic, Rheumatism. Foul Breath, Piles, and others of like nature, while along train of frightul diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcessee, Dysentery, Diarrbosa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy, and Insanity, first indicate their prosence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is gradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive Immediate follows that the disorder should receive immedia attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first ap pearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and de stroy the dangerous foe to human life.

THE GUNS.—The Pittsburgh Gazette has the following in reference to the muni-tions of Uncle Sam that were about to be stolen by the Black Republicans: The contractor for removing the ordnance from the arsenal to the wharf, commenced his work yesterday. They were hauled on timber wheels, with four horses attacked, and one of which made a pretty good load. We noticed some two or three to fthem lying immediately in front of the steamer Silver Wave, on which boat they are to be shipped South.

The Steamboatmen's Convention is to assemble in New Orleans early this month. The Captairs' Association of this city will no doubt be fully represented. The Magenta, the new clipper, in charge of Capt. Spotts, cleared for New Orleans last night, on her first trip, full of stock, a large number of passengers, and a heavy freight. Her freight included 1,300 barrels of pork, and 500 barrels of flour, with way engagements, to give her a full load. She starts out under bright

For New Orleans.—The splendid passenger packet John Raine, in charge of capt. Underwood, takes her departure to New Orleans direct this evening. She starts from Portland, providing unequalled cabin accommodations and fare for first-class passengers, and in charge of careful, experienced boatmen. The clerk, Capt. Pallacio, is very courteous, affable, and polite, and a general favorite.

Capt. Underwood, with that generosity and consideration so characteristic of him, takes the remains of the late Miss Robinson, whose untimely fate we so lately recorded, to Paducah for interment, free of charge. A free passage is also given to the father of the deceased, with his furniture, &c. The latter has been overtaken by the direst adversity, as well ss the deepest afflictions, and a kindness thus bestowed by the captain of the John Raine chould be treasured up in his favor hereafter.

The John Raine's last trip was one of the most successful of the season. She had full freight and a large number of pas The Melrose, Capt. Metcalfe, is due at the wharf this morning, and starts to Nashville at 9 o'clock.

day during the past two months. The beneficial results of such shipments is being felt in the increase in the supply of Eastern exchange, which is lower to-day than it has been since the first of the month, the nominal rates at the banks to-day being $89.9 cent. We heard that some of the houses were drawing at 7% 9 cent. A large amount was sold on the street at 5% 6 9 cent., and at the close many of our merchants who bought freely in the morning at 5%5%, refused to pay 5 9 cent. The demand for currency from produce dealers was large, and was freely met by the bankers, who are still anxious to invest their surplus currency in desirable paper. We understand that a considerable amount of the paper falling due on the 1st and 4th has already been met, and a much larger amount would have been taken up, but for the fact the makers were anticipating a further decline in Eastern exchange, and on that account they are deferring their payments as long as possible, in order to take advantage of any decline which may take place.

It will be seen from this table that the general condition of our Illinois banks is healthy, far better than even the most sanguine had supposed. They have, notwithstanding the late sudden depreciation of stocks, a fair margin for their outstanding circulation. The only ones in the list, whose condition is at all lameand unsatisfactory, are thirteen, upon which the Bank Commissioners made their late call, and then granted an extension upon it. With these exceptions, our Illinois banks are probably as sound and as safe as any in the country, and the above detailed exhibit cannot but strengthen the public confidence in them.

Of hogs and provisions the St. Louis Democrat says:

With a little less than 50,000 head killed up to this date, packers are mostly holding off, the prices being higher than they think the times lustify. Two or three of the houses are busy, however, the four heaviest having killed about 44,000 bead. The principal part of the product is still held by them, and it is is excellent condition.

XXXVITH CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION conciliatory, but firm in the execution of the laws.

The Sloop-of-war Brooklyn and another vessel, at Norfolk, were yesterday ordered to be in readiness for instant departure to Charleston. Wednesday's Proceedings. a large crewd was gathered outside the döör.

A question of order rose, the Pacific Railroad bill being the special order, and Mr. Baker having the floor.

The Pacific Railroad bill was made the special order for Saturday next.

Mr. Baker proceeded to speak of the great responsibility which he felt in speaking in such a presence. He complimented the speech of the Senator from Louisiana, as being the best he had heard, but still it reminded him of a famous book Mr. Baker read from Webster's works his opinion that no State had a right to dissolve its relations with the general Government, and claimed, according to Webster, that the government was the government on the two people. He referred to an extract read by Mr. Berjamin, froth an address of John Q. Adams, and said that the Senator had unwittingly left out the first part, when he said nullification was an idea too absurd for argument and too odifirst part, when he said nullification was an idea too absurd tor argument and too odious for discussion, and the right of a State to secede is equally absurd. Mr. Baker argued there was but one sovereign, and that was the people. He said all arguments based on the sovereignty of a State are fallacious. South Carolina was not a sovereign state and all arguments made with fallacious. South Carolina was not a sovereign State, and all arguments made with special reference to European sovereignty was not exactly applicable here. Personal Liberty Bills, if they hindered the operation of the Fugitive Slave Law, ought to be repealed, and said Lincoln will enforce the laws, whicher revenue or Fugitive Slave Laws. After fitther argument he yielded the floor; on a motion to adjourn. In the course of his remarks a message was received from the President.

P. Express, with eleven passengers and $6,577 in treasure, passed at 2 P. M.

Col. Miles received another express last night, from Mr. White, at Cottonwood Springs. He says the Indians were more quiet, and that the cause of the trouble was from the keepers of almost all the ranches selling their bad whisky, which will inevitably lead to serious disasters if not stopped. These ranche keepers being squatters on public lands, must be dealt with by the civil authorities. The Indians not having committed any overt act, Col. Miles suspended the order for the march of troops.

Denver, Dec. 29.—Last night was very cold, the mercury ranging near zero. This morning is clear, with the prospect of a pleasant day.

Our citizens begin to debate the secession movement with considerable earnestness.

Mr. Sherman said it the resolution should be allowed to come in, he would move to refer it to a select committee of five.

Mr. Houston suggested that Mr. Sherman introduce the resolution on Monday, should he obtain the floor, without making trouble here now.

Mr. Sherman replied that he desired to send the resolution to a select committee of five with such instructions as would not probably excite discussion. The Committee of Thirty-three is too large to consider the proposition.

A motion to adjourn was negatived—57 against 100.

Mr. Howard, of Michigan, was unwilling to vote on the resolution, as it contained abstract propositions. He desired that the whole subject be referred to a select committee of five, with instructions, which was read for information. Such committee is required to inquire and report whether any Executive officer has been or now is treating or holding communication with any person or persons concerning the forts or other public property at Charleston, or whether any demand has been made for the surrender. If so, by whom, and what answer has been given. What orders have been given to ships-of-war. Whether the Custom House, Post Office, and Arsenal at Charleston, and other public buildings, have been seized by any person; and also to obtain the particulars whether any revenue cutter has been seized, and whether any efforts have been made by the head of the Treasury to recapture the same; and that the committee have power to send for persons and papers and take testimony, and report, from time to time, such facts as may be material to the national welfare.

Mr. Sherman said in case the appeal should be sustained he would not press a vote, but was willing that such a reference should be made without one.

Mr. Houston said, as for himself he could make no compromise to refer with instructions, if contrary to the rule of the House.

The gression was taken on Mr. Hall's

The question was taken on Mr. Hall's motion to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to lay on the table Mr. Sherman's appeal from the decisien of the Chair, and it was decided in the affirmative by these majority.

Mr. Barksdale moved a call of the House.
Both were negatived. Other motions were made to avoid a vote on the question, "Shall the decision of the Speaker stand as the judgment of the House, he having ruled Sherman out of order?"

Mr. Howard, of Michigan, proposed as a compromise that the House agree to take a vote on the whole subject at 1 o'clock to morrow. The opposite side refused to agree to this.

The House subsequently agreed to it, and then adjourned.

Nebraska Legislature.

OMAHA, N. T., Jan. 2.—The bill to prohibit slavery was returned to the House vesterday with Gov. Black's objections. He takes substantially the same ground as last year, and makes a strong appeal against the measure on account of its probable influence in augmenting the excitement in the country.

The Massachusetts Legislature.

Boston, Jan. 2.—The Massachusetts Legislature assembled to-day. The Senate organized by electing Mr. Wm. Claflin, of Newton, for President, and Stephen M. Gifford Clerk. The House elected John A. Goodwin, of Lowell, for Speaker, and Mr. Stowe, of Springfield, Clerk. They afterwards were escorted to old South Church, and an election sermon was preached by Prof. Phalps, of Andover Seminary. Goy. Banks is expected to deliver his valedictory to-morrow.

From Independence.

Independence, Jan. 1.—The New Mexican Mail from Pawnee Fork arrived to-day. Nothing had been heard of the mail due last Tuesday. The weather is extremely cold on the plains, and it is with difficulty that stock can be kept alive.

A report was received here to-day of the hanging of a man between this place and Pleasant Hill, last night. Tampering with slaves was the reported cause.

Missouri Legislature.

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 2.—The Democracy fused in caucus last night, and to-day the House organized by electing the entire ticket. John McAfee, of Shelby, Breckinridge Democrat, was elected Speaker, and Thos. H. Murray, of Benton, Douglas Democrat, Chief Clerk.

Four men in the Georgia Gulch, one day last week, took out over $500. It was the first day they had struck the streak; the claim had been doing only moderately before. An extraordinary run was made by a mill in Nevada last week; in seven days it took out between three and four thousand dollars. A 70-stamp quartz mill had reached the mines a few days ago, and will be set up at Clear Creek. Severe snow storms had occurred.

From Charleston.

From Charleston.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 2.—The President announced the result of the balloting for Commissioners to certain States.

The Convention then went into secret session to ballot for Commissioners for Georgia and Texas.

The Columbia Artillery, numbering fifty men, arrived here to-day, and proceeded to the harbor. They will use cannon belonging to Charleston. Two hundred thousand pounds of powder has been ordered to one of the forts.

The Convention has adopted, as amended, the report recommending that proper measures be adopted to ensure the forming of a Southern Confederacy, by the appointment of Commissioners to the slaveholding States, asking them to call Conventions to consider future political relations. This step arises, by no means, from presumptuous arrogance, but an advance in the position of circumstances given South Carolina in the time of procedure for the great design of maintaining the rights and security of the Slaveholding South. The instrument called the Constitution of the United States is suggested as a suitable basis to be offered for a Provisional Government. The following are the principal reasons which induce the Convention to give that the preference: That the said instrument was the work of minds of the first order of strength; that it was most carefully constructed by comparing views and careful examination of details; that experience has proved it to be a good form of government for those sufficiently

THE FOR

The events of the year before us will be fraught with a greater interest to the people of the whole country than those of the exciting period shrough which we have just passed—as thrilling in their nature and as important in their results as they have been. For the first limit in the history of our country, a political. their results as they have been. For the first time is the history of our country, a political party, pufely and strictly sectional, has succeeded in electing the Chief Executive officer of the nation, and thus obtained control of one department of the Federal Government. This has alarmed the people of the other see. Precipitated movements looking to a dissolution of the Linger. The whole country seeds tion of the Union. The whole country—and the people of all the States alike—are deeply and equally interested in what concerns the welfare of every American citizen, whether in the North or the South, and whether at home or abroad. We are evidently currounded by perils of no ordinary magnitude-dangers that ma burst upon us in all their terrible reality at an hour. No man worthy of liberty can rest in unconcerned ignorance of events now daily o curring in all parts of the country; and a knowledge of these matters can best be ob-tained through such a newspaper as the

WEEKLY LOUISVILLE COURIER. Nor are these the only things now transpiring or about to transpire, in which our people mus-take deep interest. On the First Monday is CONGRESS WILL ASSEMBLE

And never, in the history of the country, he more important duties devolved upon the Re resentatives of the people. Many fear it will be the last Congress of the United States of North America. At any rate, the next session of that body will be one of great interest and its proceedings will be watched with much anxi-ety. Full telegraphic reports and other relia-ble information will be laid promptly before the readers of the LOUISVILLE COURIER.

Padders of the LOUISVILLE COLRES.

During the Next Year, Abraham Lincols will be inaugurated President of the United States, or of a portion of them, and a new policy will control the country. In the event of a secession of a portion of the Southern States, it may be that those who opposed the war with Mexico, and would have "welcomed our sale." Mexico, and would have "welcomed our gal lant soldiers with bloody hands to hosp graves," will attempt to drive them back at the coint of the bayonet. Civil war, desperate, cloody, may follow. It will be our province to furnish the latest and most reliable news toth eaders of the LOUISVILLE WEEKLY COUNER; and those who subscribe to it can rely on being better and more fully informed than those who rely on any other means of obtaining infor-

And abroad, as at home, great events w mark the coming year—wars, commotions, re-olutions, reforms, all affecting, more or less, the happiness of the people of the civilized world and of all of which our telegraphic and other arrangements will enable us to keep the public fully advised and correctly informed. And while doing all that can be done .o add to the just reputation of the WEEKLY COUR
